THE LANCE LEIPOLD ERA OF UB FOOTBALL BEGINS

There is a new era of UB football being issued in this fall as Lance Leipold takes over the reins of the program. Leipold comes to Buffalo with an impeccable resume. In eight seasons as head coach at Wisconsin-Whitewater, he went an astounding 109-6, becoming the fastest coach in NCAA history to reach 100 wins. Even more impressive, he won six national championships in his eight seasons with the Warhawks. Now, Leipold brings that winning formula to Western New York looking to lead the Bulls to a Mid-American Conference title.

Leipold takes over a team that returns a lot of talent, especially on the offensive side of the ball. The Bulls return eight of 11 starters on offense, including starters at every skill position. The defense took a hit with graduation, but a group of young and hungry players look to make their mark once given the chance.

Here is a positional breakdown as the Bulls enter fall camp.

QUARTERBACKS

One luxury Coach Leipold will have is that his quarterback is one of the best in school history. Joe Licata is coming off his finest season as a starter, throwing for 2,647 yards and 29 touchdowns in only 11 games. He is entering his fourth season as a starter and already holds the school record for touchdown passes with 60 and ranks third all time in career completions with 543 and fourth in career passing yardage with 6,516.

Behind Licata is fellow senior Tony Daniel. Last season, Daniel came into his own as a quarterback and towards the end of the season even split time with Licata - used more as dual-threat option. At 6-5, Daniel has good size and showed good decision making between passing and running the football. In five games, he completed 9-of-15 passes for 149 yards and two touchdowns. He also carried the ball six times for 45 yards and a score.

Junior Collin Michael and redshirt–freshman Chris Merchant will likely battle it out for the third-string spot. Michael has seen limited action over his first two seasons, but shows promise with his strong arm and escapability. Merchant worked with the scout team as a true freshman last year and showed he has a very accurate arm.

Tyree Jackson, an incoming freshman from Michigan, will also get some reps in camp.

RUNNING BACKS

The Bulls will have depth and experience at running back led by senior Anthone Taylor. The 2014 All-MAC running back is coming off a breakout season after replacing all-time leading rusher Branden Oliver. Taylor rushed for 1,403 yards, the second best single-season effort in school history. The Ohio native became the first player in school history to string together three 200-yard rushing performances in a single season. He ran for 237 yards against Massachusetts, 222 yards against Miami (OH) and 219 yards against Bowling Green.

After battling injuries over his first two seasons, Jordan Johnson was finally healthy in 2014 and ranked second on the team in rushing. Over eight games, Johnson rushed for 373 yards on 74 carries. He had the best game of his career against Akron, rushing for 104 yards and a touchdown.

Sophomore Michael Forman and redshirt-freshmen Gary Hosey and Chris Doubek will add depth in the backfield.

The Bulls have a pair of explosive freshman who will look to make an immediate impact. Johnathan Hawkins rushed for 1,150 yards (8.0 ypc) and 19 touchdowns and Emmanuel Reed rushed for 1,844 yards and 27 touchdowns during their senior seasons.

Kendall Patterson has excelled at fullback since injuries forced him to make the switch from defensive line in 2013. Entering his third year as a fullback, Patterson has proven to be a solid blocker and can catch the ball out of the backfield when needed.

Glynn Molinich and Joe Schillace should also get reps at fullback.

WIDE RECEIVERS

A young wide receiver corps stepped up last season and should only get better in 2015. Heading into 2014, Ron Willoughby had only three career catches. He emerged as the Bulls' top target in 2014. As a junior last year, the Ohio native had 50 receptions for 771 yards and nine touchdowns en route to earning All-MAC Third Team honors. His nine touchdown catches ranked third in the MAC.

Jacob Martinez emerged as UB's top slot receiver as a redshirt-freshman last season. Martinez had 28 catches for 280 yards and three touchdowns in 2014.

Marcus McGill also developed into a solid receiving threat after earning his first chance at significant time in 2014. At 6-1, 222, McGill is one of the Bulls' strongest receivers with the ability to catch the ball in traffic. He had 22 receptions for 343 yards and three touchdowns last season. His 15.6 yards per catch was the best among UB's starting receivers.

Licata

Taylor

Devin Campbell is one of the Bulls' most versatile players. The UB senior has been used as both a slot receiver and a running back over his career and it will be interesting to see how he fits into Leipold's system. Last season, Campbell had 24 receptions for 182 yards and four touchdowns and rushed for 161 yards on 33 carries.

Jamarl Eiland and Malcolm Robinson are a pair of young receivers who will also likely play a larger role in 2015. Eiland had four catches for 89 yards last season and Robinson had three receptions for 31 yards and two touchdowns.

The Bulls welcomed Collin Lisa to the program after he transferred to UB from UAB after its football program was dropped. He will have three years of eligibility remaining after playing his freshman season with the Blazers.

J.R. Zazzara and Mikel DeMonte will add depth to the receiving corps.

Freshmen K.J. Osborn of the IMG Academy and local product Brandon Smiley will look to make an immediate impact.

TIGHT ENDS

The Bulls feature a lot of experience at the tight end position. Senior Matt Weiser and junior Mason Schreck have both played in every game of their careers.

An Academic All-MAC selection, Weiser had 15 catches for 286 yards and four touchdowns in 2015. Schreck had 10 receptions for 106 yards last season.

Kevin Rogers, Kyle Nagel as well as incoming freshmen Tyler Mabry and Matt Seybert will add depth at the tight end position.

OFFENSIVE LINE

The biggest loss this team will face on the offensive side of the ball is on the offensive line. The Bulls will need to replace a trio of veteran starters in Trevor Sales, Andre Davis and Jake Silas.

The Bulls do return a pair of starters in John Kling and Robert Blodgett as well as Brandon Manosalvas who saw extensive action.

Kling started six games at left tackle as a sophomore and all 11 games at right tackle last season.

Blodgett started eight games at right guard as a redshirt-freshman in 2013 and the final nine games as a sophomore last season.

Manosalvas will likely replace Sales at center. The New Jersey native started the first two games at right guard a season ago and also served as the team's backup center.

There should be quite a battle during fall camp to determine who will fill out the starting offensive line. Senior Dillon Guy has battled through injuries, but has experience in the starting lineup. Senior Todd Therrien and juniors Albert McCoy have both seen game action over their careers.

After redshirting as true freshmen a season ago, Matt Murphy, Andy Fidler, James O'Hagan, Skylar Hartley and Bill Galley as well as sophomore Tyler O'Henly are bigger, stronger and ready to challenge for more prominent roles.

Also joining UB's offensive line this season are freshman Evin Ksiezarczyk as well as JUCO transfers Roubbens Joseph and Trey Bowman.

While the offense has key starters returning at nearly every position, the defense took quite a hit following last season. Only five defensive starters return from last season.

DEFENSIVE LINE

With the graduation of Kristjan Sokoli and Tedroy Lynch coupled with Coach Leipold's switch from a three-man to a four-man defensive front, the Bulls will have a number of new faces on the starting defensive line.

Brandon Crawford started six games at defensive end last season and showed flashes of dominance. Crawford had 19 tackles, including three sacks as a sophomore last year.

Max Perisse worked his way into the starting lineup late last season, starting three of the final four games. He had 13 tackles, including 2.5 tackles for loss on the year.

Sophomores Chris Ford and Demone Harris each saw game action last season and look to have a larger role in 2015.

After playing last season at linebacker and on special teams, Solomon Jackson is making the move to defensive end. Randy Anyanwu will also be making the move from linebacker to defensive end.

Sophomore Zach Smekal as well as redshirt-freshmen Gusty Schwartzmeier, Jake Khoury, Corey Henderson and Myles Nicholas will continue to work this spring in hopes of challenging for a more prominent role.

Christian Gonzalez enrolled at UB in January after coming to Coach Leipold's program from Milford Academy. At 6-5, 290 Gonzalez could come in and help the Bulls right away.

An emphasis of the coaching staff during the offseason was recruiting size on the defensive line. They did so by adding three defensive linemen. JUCO transfer Torey Hendrick as well as freshmen Duke Hwang, Justin Brandon and Charles Harris will take the field in the fall.

Weiser

Kling

Crawford

LINEBACKERS

Linebacker is another position that was hit hard by graduation. The Bulls will need to replace starters Jake Stockman and Lee Skinner – who finished his career sixth in school history in career tackles.

Heading up the group of returners is Jarrett Franklin. Entering his junior season, Franklin is the Bulls top returning tackler. In 2014, the Missouri native had 49 tackles, including five tackles for loss while starting 10 games.

Okezie Alozie has played both safety and linebacker over his career and it looks like he will play linebacker in Coach Leipold's system. A senior, Alozie started eight games last season and matched Franklin's 49 tackles and five tackles for loss. Alozie added three sacks on the year.

Originally a walk-on, Nick Gilbo earned a scholarship prior to the 2013 season and has been a solid member of the linebacker rotation. Last season, Gilbo played in all 11 games and had 37 tackles, included four tackles for loss.

Kyril Threats was a pleasant surprise for the Bulls last season. Little was known of the Buffalo native when he arrived at UB from Erie Community College. Threats became an important reserve linebacker and his play only got stronger as the season progressed. Threats finished with 20 tackles, four tackles for loss and three sacks on the season.

Like Alozie, Brandon Berry and C.J. Stancil have also played safety in their careers but will make the move to linebacker under the new regime. Berry is a hard hitter who had nine tackles, including a tackle for loss last season. Stancil has played primarily on the special teams unit over his career.

Senior Travis Pitzonka and sophomores Greg Lis and Ishmael Hargrove have experience in a reserve role and on special teams. They will get a chance to challenge for starting roles in 2015.

After redshirting as a true freshman last season, Will White showed promise as he continues to develop.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

The Bulls should be strong at the cornerback spot with the return of starters Marqus Baker and Boise Ross. Baker missed the majority of 2014 with an illness, but did return to play in the final four games of the season and is ready to go for 2015.

With the loss of Baker last season, Ross was asked to make the switch from wide receiver to cornerback. Ross agreed and it didn't take long for him to excel at his new position. He finished the season with 26 tackles, six pass breakups and an interception.

Brandon Williams and Terrance Wilson both redshirted as true freshman last season and both will likely play a more prominent role in 2015.

Freshmen Jeremiah Dadeboe and Cameron Skipworth will also compete for playing time at cornerback.

At safety, the Bulls will need to replace two-time All-MAC selection Adam Redden as well as fellow starter Witney Sherry.

One likely candidate to challenge for the starting role is Andrews Dadeboe. The Pennsylvania native had 13 tackles and four pass breakups, playing in all 11 games last season.

Ryan Williamson also played in all 11 games and had 10 tackles as a true freshman last season.

Jordan Collier joins Collin Lisa from the UAB program. He redshirted last season for the Blazers and will have four years of eligibility remaining.

Houston Glass has been a standout on special teams over his career. The junior will have an opportunity to challenge for a safety role in 2015.

Junior William Rembert and sophomores Diamond Williams and Zach Nicholas along with a speedy Dev Lamour, who enrolled at UB in January, will add depth at safety.

Also joining the safety corps are freshman Brandon Stanback.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Tyler Grassman will return for his fourth season as the Bulls' starting punter and has improved every year. Last season, the two-time Academic All-MAC selection averaged 40.7 yards per punt. Opponents only gained 32 total return yards off of his 50 punts.

While the Bulls have experience at punter, that is not the case at kicker. UB graduated Patrick Clarke who finished his career second in school history in career field goals. Adam Mitcheson redshirted last season and will likely step into the role as starting kicker.

Corbin Grassman, cousin of punter Tyler Grassman, will return for his third season as starting long snapper.

Devin Campbell returns for his third season as a kick returner. Campbell ranks second in school history in career kick return yardage - just 80 yards shy of the school record. He was a second-team All-MAC selection as a kick returner a season ago.

Jacob Martinez has the most punt return experience on the team with seven returns last season. Marcus McGill and Jamarl Eiland also returned punts last season.

Head Coach Lance Leipold

Lance Leipold was named the 25th head coach in the history of the State University of New York, Buffalo football program on December 1, 2014.

Leipold comes to UB from Wisconsin-Whitewater where he compiled an astounding 109-6 record and won six Division III National Championships over his eight seasons. A six-time National Coach of the Year, Leipold reached 100 career victories faster than any other coach in NCAA history – at any level.

"We're excited to have Coach Leipold here in UB Blue," White stated. "In our conversations it became obvious to me that this is a man of character. This is someone that is going to continue the tradition that we already have of recruiting high-character kids, student-first student-athletes. In short, he does it the right way."

Leipold has gathered multiple honors from as many as five football-related organizations. He earned his sixth American Football Coaches Association Division III Coach of the Year award in 2014. He has won the award more times than any active coach at any level. He passed the late Joe Paterno, who was a five-time recipient of the award.

In his first season as head coach at Whitewater, The Warhawks went 14-1 and won the national title. He led the Warhawks back to the national championship game in 2008, but they lost to Mount Union, 31-26. Wisconsin-Whitewater went 15-0, winning the national championship in 2009, 2010 and 2011 and won 46 straight games over that span. Following a 7-3 season in 2012, UWW went a perfect 15-0 and won the national championship in 2013 and followed with another perfect 15-0 season and a national title in 2014.

"I'd like to thank Dr. Tripathi and Danny White for this outstanding opportunity to be the 25th head football coach at New York's university," said Leipold. "This is an unbelievable opportunity. It's ready to take off. It's going to take work, it's going to take commitment, and that's what makes athletics, especially football, so competing. It's the ultimate team game and I'm glad to be apart of this team."

In Division III, where athletic scholarships aren't a part of the game, Leipold was able to recruit top-notch talent to the campus in southeastern Wisconsin. During his tenure, running back Justin Beaver earned the Gagliardi Trophy as the top player in Division III. Brent Allen earned the Division III Rimington Award as the top center. Jeff Schebler was the first recipient of the Fred Mitchell Award, given to the top placekicker in Division II or III. Tailback Levell Coppage earned D3football.com Offensive Player of the Year accolades, and Cole Klotz was selected D3football.com Defensive Player of the Year. Defensive back Jared Kiesow was named an NCAA Elite 88 Award winner. The Warhawks have piled up 56 All-America honors under Leipold's tutelage.

A native of Jefferson, WI, Leipold began his coaching career at Wisconsin-Whitewater in 1987 as a quarterbacks coach and then wide receivers coach. He moved to the University of Wisconsin from 1991-93 as a graduate assistant and helped the Badgers to a Big Ten title and a Rose Bowl appearance in 1993.

As an assistant coach at Division II Nebraska-Omaha from 1994-2000, Leipold helped turn the Mavericks from a 1-10 team in 1994 into three-time North Central Conference champions during his tenure. After being promoted to offensive coordinator in 2000, he moved on to the University of Nebraska, where he served for three seasons under current Ohio head coach Frank Solich. He was on the same staff as former UB head coach Turner Gill. The Cornhuskers competed in the national championship game in 2001 and earned bowl bids in 2002 and 2003.

He returned to Nebraska-Omaha to serve as associate head coach and offensive coordinator from 2004-06. The Mavericks finished 8-3 and won the conference championship each of his three seasons.

Leipold is a 1987 graduate of Wisconsin-Whitewater where he was a standout quarterback for the Warhawks. He ranks second in school history in career pass attempts (647), fourth in yards (4,277), sixth in completions (303) and tied for 10th with 27 touchdowns. He was inducted into the Whitewater Hall of Fame in 2003.

"This morning I had the chance to meet with the team. What an impressive group of young men," said Leipold. "To see the looks on their faces, I know they're hungry and ready to get to work, and I'm equally as excited."

Leipold and his wife, Kelly, have a daughter, Lindsey, and a son, Landon.

At UWW, Kotelnicki led an offense that led the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WIAC) in scoring offense (40.1), rushing offense (218.2) and passing offense (269.5) in 2014 en route to a perfect 15-0 season and the programs' sixth Stagg Bowl national championship in eight seasons.

The Warhawks featured one of the most efficient offensive attacks in the nation under Kotelnicki's leadership in 2013. Whitewater led the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference and ranked among the top five in the nation in first downs (311), interceptions allowed (1) and turnover margin (+2.3).

The Warhawks' offense also led the conference in red zone offense, converting scores on 85.9 percent of drives inside the 20-yard line, and set single-season team records in passes completed (312) and passing touchdowns (42) in 2013.

Borland began at UW-W in 1994, also serving as the defensive backs coach. He was announced as a 2015 Wisconsin Football Coaches Association Hall of Fame inductee.

Borland was named Division III Coordinator of the Year in 2013 by footballscoop.com after helping lead the Warhawks to the NCAA Division III national championship, the team's fifth in seven seasons. UW-Whitewater led the nation in scoring defense, allowing just 9.1 points per contest, and ranked No. 1 in the country in fumbles recovered (19) and turnovers forced (44).

From 2009-14, Borland's defenses led the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference and ranked among the top 20 in the nation in rushing defense, scoring defense and total defense. The Warhawks also led the league in pass efficiency from 2010-13.

In addition to his football coaching duties at UW-W, Borland teaches in the HPRC Department.

He has a wife, Gayle, and two sons, Evan and Jaren.

Rob Ianello

Associated Head Coach/Wide Receivers
Catholic '87
First Season at Buffalo

Rob Ianello brings over 25 years of experience to UB and is recognized as one of the best recruiters in college football. He most recently spent three seasons on the Kansas football staff where he was the recruiting coordinator and wide receivers coach.

Ianello was instrumental in helping bring the 25th-rated signing class to Kansas in 2013 according to The Sporting News. The Jayhawkclass had two four-star prospects, including the top-rated JUCO prospect in the nation in defensive lineman Marquel Combs.

No stranger to the Mid-American Conference, Ianello served as head coach at Akron for the 2010 and 2011 seasons. Prior to his stint at Akron, Ianello was a member of the coaching staff at Notre Dame from 2005-09. He coached the Irish in the 2008 Hawai'i Bowl, 2007 Sugar Bowl and 2006 Fiesta Bowl.

From 2005-08 at Notre Dame, he served as wide receivers coach and coordinated the recruiting efforts of the Irish. In January 2009, he was promoted to assistant head coach for offense. In that role, he led offensive staff meetings when head coach Charlie Weis was not present, and later served as the team's interim head coach.

Notre Dame's 2009 offense ranked sixth nationally in passing offense (323.50 ypg) and ninth in total offense (451.75 ypg). Ianello mentored Irish wide receiver Golden Tate, who was the 2009 Biletnikoff Award winner and a consensus All-American. Additionally, he coached Jeff Samardzija, who was a Biletnikoff Award finalist in 2005 and 2006 and earned All-America honors in2006.

As the recruiting coordinator for the Irish, he directed three consecutive top-10 recruiting classes from 2006-08, something only three other schools (USC, Florida and Georgia) could claim. Additionally, Ianello is the only coach named one of the 25-best recruiters nationally from 2005-09 by Rivals.com. In the book "The Second Season" by recruiting analyst Tom Lemming, Ianello is named one of the top-10 recruiters of the last 30 years.

Ianello had two coaching stints at Wisconsin (1990-93, 2003-04), and was part of a staff that helped lead the Badgers to the 1994 Rose Bowl, the 2003 Music City

Bowl and the 2005 Outback Bowl.

From 1994-2002, Ianello was on staff at Arizona, serving as recruiting coordinator from 1994-96, and wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator from 1997-2002. The Wildcats played in two bowl games, the 1997 Insight.com Bowl and the 1998 Holiday Bowl.The 1998 Arizona team finished 12-1, which stands as the best record in school history.

Ianello served on the board of trustees of the American Football Coaches Association in from 2003 to 2009. The board formulates policy and provides direction for the AFCA. He also has served asthe chair of the AFCA's assistant coaches' committee and the general chairman of the AFCA's all-division assistant coaches'committee. He also served on the AFCA ethics committee in 2010 and 2011.

Ianello is a native of Port Chester, N.Y., and is a 1987 graduate of The Catholic University of America inWashington, D.C., owning a bachelor's degree in English.

Ianello and his wife, the former Denise Dove, have one son, Zachary, and two daughters, Ashley and Courtney. Denise played collegiate basketball at Northern Illinois and is a former assistant women's basketball coach at Arizona and Wisconsin. She has also worked as a scout in the WNBA.

In 2014 as wide receivers coach at UWW, Hensell helped lead the Warhawks to the top passing offense ranking in the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WIAC). Four of his wide receivers earn All-WIAC honors, including two that were named to the first team. The Warhawks went a perfect 15-0 in 2014 and won the Stagg Bowl for the sixth time in eight years.

In 2013, two wide receivers earned All-WIAC accolades, including first team honoree Jake Kumerow. A second team All-West Region selection by d3football.com, Kumerow set school records for receiving yards (1,331) and receiving touchdowns (19) in one season. The team's strong receiving corps helped the Warhawks post a 15-0 record and a national championship.

Hensell came to UWW from D1-AA (FCS) member Gardner-Webb (N.C.) University, where he was the offensive line coach. During the 2012 season, he helped produce three All-Big South Conference selections, including left guard Jamie Dunaway, who received third team All–America honors. A total of four players have garnered All–America honors while being tutored by Hensell.

A New Carlisle, IN, native, Hensell spent time at the University of Connecticut as an offensive quality control coach in February 2012 before joining the Gardner-Webb staff.

Hensell spent the previous five seasons in the Southeastern Conference, including the 2011 season as assistant offensive line coach and offensive graduate assistant at Ole Miss. He worked with the Rebels' offensive line and tight ends in 2011, helping mentor right tackle Bobby Massie, who was drafted in the fourth round of the 2012 NFL Draft by the Arizona Cardinals.

In 2010, Hensell served as assistant offensive line coach and offensive intern at the University of Tennessee, where he had the opportunity to coach center James Stone, who earned freshman All-America honors for the Vols. Tennessee was selected to play in the Music City Bowl following the regular season.

Hensell worked his first stint at Ole Miss from 2007-09, working as assistant offensive line coach in 2008 and 2009. The Rebels were 9-4 in each of those seasons, finishing the seasons with AP ranks of Nos. 14 and 20, respectively, and won a pair of Cotton Bowls. In 2008, Ole Miss averaged 407.6 yards of total offense per game and 186.5 yards per game on the ground. Left tackle Michael Oher earned first-team All-America honors and was taken in the first round of the NFL Draft by the Baltimore Ravens. Hensell also served as a student assistant baseball coach during his time at Franklin, helping the team to a 29-15 record, a Heartland Conference championship and a No. 24 national ranking in 2005.

Following his time on staff at Franklin, Hensell moved on to coach quarterbacks at UW-River Falls in 2005 and 2006. He helped tutor Jeremy Wolff, one of only three signal callers in Division III selected to play in the Aztec Bowl, to All-WIAC honors in 2006.

Hensell started his career in coaching in 2003 at Decatur Central (Ind.) High, coaching quarterbacks following a career-ending injury on the college gridiron.

As a student-athlete, Hensell played two sports at Franklin as a freshman, lining up at running back and receiver, and pitching for the Grizzlies' baseball team. He helped the baseball squad to a 32-10 record, a Heartland Conference title and a No. 30 national ranking as a freshman in 2002. He came to Franklin from New Prairie (Ind.) High School, where he was a three-sport standout in football, basketball and baseball, earning 10 letters throughout his prep career.

Matt Simon

Running Backs
Eastern New Mexico '76
Fifth Season at Buffalo

Matt Simon enters his fifth season as running backs coach. Running backs have flourished under Simon's tutelage. Simon coached All-MAC running back Branden Oliver who ran for a school-record 1,535 yards and finished his career with 4,049 rushing yards - also a school record. Oliver became just the 13th player in MAC history to rush for 4,000 yards.

In 2014, Anthone Taylor entered his first season as a starter and picked up where Oliver left off. The junior running back rushed for 1,403 yards - the second-highest single-season total in school history and earned second-team All-MAC honors.

In 2013, the Bulls rushed for 2,176 yards - the third most in school history for a single season. This came on the heels of the 2012 season when UB rushed for 2,120 yards.

In 2012, Oliver was hampered with injuries issues, but still averaged 117 yards in seven games. True freshman Devin Campbell stepped in and rushed for 502 yards on the season, including 160 yards against Ohio.

In 2011, he coached Oliver to a recordbreaking season in only his first season as running backs coach. Oliver rushed for a school-record 1,395 yards and added 13 touchdowns on the season.

Simon brought a tremendous resume built upon 11 years of coaching in the National Football League and 18 years at the collegiate level, including serving as the head coach at the University of North Texas for three seasons.

Simon began his coaching career at the University of Washington, serving under head coach Don James from 1981-92, a tenure that was highlighted when the Huskies claimed a share of the national championship in 1991. He coached three All-Americans at UW, including running backs Greg Lewis and Napoleon Kaufman.

He would go on to serve as offensive coordinator at New Mexico from 1992-94 where his offenses ranked 18th and 10th nationally in his two seasons. He would then be named head coach at the University of North Texas, where in his first season he would lead the Mean Green to the Southland Conference title and earn Conference and AFCA Region 4 Coach of the Year honors.

After interning for one season with the Denver Broncos in 1998, Simon was named running backs coach with the Baltimore Ravens, where he contributed to tremendous success by the franchise, including helping the Ravens earn a Super Bowl title in 2000. He also helped lead Baltimore to playoff berths in 2001 and 2003, when the Ravens claimed their first AFC North title. With Baltimore he would coach Pro Bowler Jamal Lewis, who in 2003 under Simon's tutelage, would post the second-highest rushing total in NFL history when he rushed for 2,066 yards and scored 14 touchdowns.

His success with running backs would continue when he spent the 2007-08 seasons with the San Diego Chargers. There he would help LaDainian Tomlinson to his second NFL rushing title, while fumbling just once, and also tutored Pro Bowl fullback Lorenzo Neal and Darren Sproles, who would earn a Pro Bowl alternate invite as a return specialist.

He also spent time as a professional football consultant and head coach at Gilmour Academy in Gates Mills, OH. He has worked with several players to prepare them for the Senior Bowl, NFL combine and NFL draft, including Detroit Lions 2010 first-round selection Jahvid Best.

He arrived at GVSU following a two-year stint at the University of Nebraska-Omaha under current EMU defensive coordinator Brad McCaslin. The Mavericks were 14-9 with one appearance in the NCAA DII playoffs during his time on the staff.

Simpson spent five years at Division III national power Wisconsin-Whitewater where he was an assistant coach in charge of the linebackers. BUFFALO 38, DUQUESNE 28

AUG. 30, 2014 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

The University at Buffalo football team opened the 2014 season with a 38-28 win over Duquesne at UB Stadium on Saturday afternoon. The Bulls got key contributions from young players on both sides of the ball getting the chance to step up and prove themselves in the absence of the All-MAC performers they replaced.

One such performance was by Ron Willoughby. The junior wide receiver, who had three career catches entering the 2014 campaign, had a career-best 10 catches for 132 yards and two touchdowns against the Dukes. He was the favorite target of quarterback Joe Licata who went 25-of-36 for 298 yard and three touchdowns in the game.

Junior running back Anthone Taylor posted his third career 100-yard game with 115 yards on a career-high 30 carries and a pair of touchdowns. He paced a running attack that rushed for 174 yards as a team. Sophomore Jordan Johnson finally saw the first game action of his career and rushed for 38 yards on nine carries. He used his big frame to bulldoze the Duquesne defense and convert key third-down-and-short conversions late in the game. Devin Campbell added 37 yards on six carries.

Licata did a good job of distributing the football as he connected with eight different receivers. Marcus McGill had four catches for 40 yards. Boise Ross and Campbell each had three catches. Matt Weiser had two catches for 52 yards. The junior tight end opened the scoring with a 41-yard touchdown reception – the longest of his career.

Weiser's touchdown came on the Bulls' opening drive. The next time the Bulls got the ball, they were driving again before the game was halted for 44 minutes due to lightning. Once play resumed, it took them only three plays to find end zone as Taylor rumbled in from 11-yards out.

Another Taylor touchdown run, this time from five yards out, gave the Bulls a 21-0 lead with 5:24 left in half. The Bulls seemed in cruise control until a muffed punt return gave the Dukes the ball at the UB 29-yard late in the second quarter. Duquesne capitalized and scored to cut the lead to 21-7 at the half.

The Dukes rode the momentum into the second half as they marched 75 yards on their first possession to cut the UB advantage to 21-14. The Dukes struck again on their next possession and an 88-yard touchdown pass tied the game at 21 midway through the third quarter.

Patrick Clarke put the Bull back ahead, 24-21, with a 24-yard field goal with 1:46 left in the third quarter. However, Duquesne responded and marched 75 yards on six plays to take a 28-24 lead with 14:55 left in the game.

After the teams traded punts, The Bulls regained the lead for good with an impressive nine-play, 97-yard drive that was capped by a 24-yard touchdown pass from Licata to Willoughby with 9:50 left. The Bulls sealed the victory with a 16-play, 75-yard touchdown drive capped by a Licata to Willoughby 11-yard connection to make the final score, 38-28.

The UB defense was led by veteran safety Adam Redden who had seven tackles, including a pair of sacks, one of which came late in the game. Kristjan Sokoli and Lee Skinner each added seven tackles as well. The UB defense was stout up front, limiting the Dukes to just 51 yards rushing in the game. Brandon Crawford, making his first-career start, had a sack, forced a fumble that was recovered by UB's Kendall Roberson, and knocked down three Duquesne pass attempts.

ARMY 47, BUFFALO 39

SEP. 6, 2014 • MICHIE STADIUM • WEST POINT, NY

Trailing, 47-17, in the fourth quarter, the University at Buffalo football team fought back and nearly capped an improbable comeback, but ultimately lost to the Black Knights, 47-39, at Michie Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

Joe Licata threw for 396 yards and an FBS-era school-record five touchdown passes in the game. The junior signal-caller hit 11 different receivers. His favorite target was Marcus McGill who had six catches for 123 yards and two touchdowns – all career highs. Devin Campbell also had a pair of touchdown receptions.

Army, playing its first game of the season, featured a strong running attack, utilizing the triple-option offense. The UB defense struggled to defend the offense and allowed 341 yards on the ground, one week after holding Duquesne to just 51 yards rushing.

The Bulls got off to a great start as, on the third play of the game, Lee Skinner force a fumble that was recovered by Witney Sherry. UB drove down the field and a Patrick Clarke 22-yard field goal gave the Bulls a 3-0 lead. However, Army would control the remainder of the half and led 21-3 at the break.

The Black Knights went ahead, 28-3, midway through the third quarter before the Bulls finally found the endzone. Licata hit Devon Hughes across the middle for a 20-yard touchdown to cut the lead to 28-10.

The teams would trade quick scores. First, a 41-yard touchdown run by Army put the Black Knights back up, 34-10. The Bulls quickly answered as Licata hit McGill with a quick screen and the junior wide receiver outraced everyone 65 yards for a touchdown.

Back-to-back quick touchdowns by Army made the score 47-17 and seemingly out of reach. First, Licata hit Campbell with a shovel pass and the junior running back outraced the defenders to the pylon for a touchdown – 47-24.

A perfectly executed onside kick by Clarke was recovered by McGill and the Bulls were back on offense. UB drove 47 yards on eight plays and Licata found McGill from three yards out to cut the lead to 47-31 with 6:01 left.

The UB defense was able to force an Army fumble that was recovered by Lee Skinner at the UB 33-yard line with 5:03 left. The Bulls marched 67 yards in 2:21 and Licata and Campbell connected for their second touchdown of the game, this time from eight yards out. Willoughby caught the two-point conversion attempt and all of the sudden the Bulls were down by only eight points.

UB had one more chance as the defense held and the Bulls got the ball back at their own 25-yard line with 57 seconds left and no timeouts. However, the drive stalled and so did UB's chances of completing the comeback.

The Bulls actual outgained Army in total offense, 549-466. Licata's 396 passing yards were the 10th most in a single game in school history. His 34 completions were two shy of his own school record. His five touchdown passes were an FBS-era record.

#8/#7 BAYLOR 63, BUFFALO 21

SEP. 12, 2014 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

The University at Buffalo football team hosted eighth-ranked Baylor in a primetime matchup on ESPN on Friday night. The defending Big 12 champions, with the nation's fourth ranked offense, defeated the Bulls, 63-21, in front of 24,714 fans at UB Stadium. The 21 points scored by UB were against a Baylor defense that hadn't allowed a touchdown all season.

The Bears were led by Heisman Trophy candidate Bryce Petty who threw for 416 yards and four touchdowns. Baylor's speed troubled the UB defense as three different receivers had over 100 yards, led by Jay Lee who had nine catches for 136 yards and two touchdowns.

Known for its quick-strike offense, four of Baylor's five first-half touchdowns were scored in 2:11 or less. The Bears took a 35-0 lead into the locker room at halftime.

UB got on the board early in the third quarter when Joe Licata found Devon Hughes on a quick screen that the senior receiver turned into a 41-yard touchdown. Following a Baylor score, Anthone Taylor busted through the Bears' defense for a 41-yard run to the end zone that made the score 42-14.

UB's final touchdown was an acrobatic catch by Malcolm Robinson from Tony Daniel midway through the fourth quarter.

Licata finished 14-of-25 for 171 yards and a touchdown. Jordan Johnson was the Bulls' leading rusher with a career-best 97 yards on the ground. Hughes was UB's top receiver with six catches for 72 yards and a touchdown. The Bulls had 394 yards of total offense.

The UB defense was led by Lee Skinner who had nine tackles. Jarrett Franklin, Tedroy Lynch and Okezie Alozie each had seven.

BUFFALO 36, NORFOLK ST. 7

SEP. 20, 2014 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

There were a lot of questions surrounding the play of the University at Buffalo's defense in the past few games. The Bulls defense silenced their critics will a dominant 36-7 victory over Norfolk State on Saturday afternoon at UB Stadium.

The Bulls held Norfolk State to 215 yards of total offense, including 99 passing yards on just three completions. The three completions were the fewest by an opponent in UB's FBS era (since 1999). Adam Redden was just one of the many standouts on defense with six tackles, including 1.5 for loss and a forced fumble.

Norfolk State's lone touchdown came on a 68-yard pass play with 10:15 left in the first quarter. The UB defense held the Spartans to negative one yard of total offense the rest of the half to really set the tone.

The Bulls got on the board first, in historic fashion, when Joe Licata connected with Devon Hughes on a 92-yard touchdown reception. It was the longest touchdown pass in school history, surpassing the 91-yard touchdown from Mark Taylor to Jamie Gasparre against Hofstra in 1996.

Following the Norfolk State touchdown to tie the game, Licata connected with Hughes again. The nine-yard touchdown grab gave the Bulls the lead for good.

Licata's third touchdown of the game came with 8:44 left in the second quarter when the junior signal-caller made a perfect back shoulder throw to Ron Willoughby from three yards out to give the Bulls a 20-7 lead. A 39-yard field goal by Patrick Clarke in the final seconds of the half gave the Bulls a 23-7 lead at halftime.

For the Bulls' fourth touchdown, Licata ran it in from the one-yard line. UB's final touchdown came with 9:40 left in the game when Tony Daniel, who came in to spell Licata once the game was out of hand, connected with Willoughby on a 17-yard touchdown. It was a tremendous catch by Willoughby who was able to get one foot down in the end zone before being pushed out of bounds.

Licata finished the game throwing for 229 yards and three touchdowns in blustery conditions that made it difficult to throw. He tied Cliff Scott (1991-94) for third in school history with 43 career touchdown passes.

Hughes was his favorite target as the senior wide receiver had five catches for a career-best 120 yards and two touchdowns. Willoughby had four catches for 64 yards and a pair of touchdowns as well.

Another Taylor led UB's rushing attack with a season-high 116 yards. As a team, the Bulls rushed for 169 yards in the game.

Boise Ross, playing in just his second game at cornerback, had five tackles as did junior linebacker Nick Gilbo. Gilbo added 1.5 tackles for loss. Max Perisse had the best game of his young career, finishing with four tackles, two tackles for loss and a forced fumble. As a team, UB had 10 tackles for loss and three sacks.

BUFFALO 35, MIAMI (OH) 27

SEPT. 27, 2014 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

Anthone Taylor rushed for a career-high 222 yards and three touchdowns to help lead the University at Buffalo football team to a 35-27 win over Miami (OH) on Saturday afternoon at UB Stadium. The only thing hotter than the late September weather (79 degrees) was a UB squad that rolled up 575 yards of total offense, the second-highest effort in their FBS era (since 1999).

UB quarterback Joe Licata finished 28-for-38 for 276 yards and two touchdowns. His second touchdown was the 45th of his career, moving him into second place all-time in school history. He also went over 5,000 career passing yards in the game.

Once again, another wide receiver emerged for the Bulls, a common theme this season. This time it was Jacob Martinez. The redshirt-freshman had eight catches for 94 yards and a touchdown. Coming into the game, the South Port, FL native had five receptions for 48 yards on the year. With the Bulls trailing, 7-0, early in the contest, Martinez caught a nine-yard touchdown, the first of his career, to tie the game at 7.

The Bulls struck again on their next drive when Licata connected with Matt Weiser on a 31-yard touchdown to give the Bulls a 14-7 lead with 3:21 left in the first quarter. Miami broke a 61-yard touchdown midway through the second quarter to tie the game at 14 apiece. The game remained tied at halftime.

Miami struck first in the second half, scoring a touchdown on their first drive, to take a 21-14 lead. The Bulls answered right back as Taylor scored his first touchdown of the game, just over two minutes later. After a missed extra point, his 13-yard run cut the Miami lead to 21-20.

Taylor's second touchdown of the game, a 3-yard run, gave the Bulls a 26-21 lead in the closing seconds of the third quarter and capped an 11-play, 59-yard drive.

Miami quarterback and Notre Dame transfer Andrew Hendrix threw his third touchdown of the game to give the RedHawks a 27-26 lead with14:13 left in the game. However, the Bulls responded with an eight-play, 67 yard drive, capped by Taylor's third touchdown of the game to give UB the lead for good.

Patrick Clarke capped the scoring with a 37-yard field goal to give the Bulls a 35-27 lead with 6:28 left.

Then it was up to the defense. The Bulls thwarted two potential game-tying scoring drives late in the game to help seal the victory. Coming into to the game, Hendrix led the Mid-American Conference in passing yardage. He completed only 12 of 38 pass attempts in the game. Cortney Lester led the UB secondary with six of the Bulls' 11 pass breakups.

Recently converted wide receiver Boise Ross had another solid game at cornerback as he provided good coverage and knocked away a potential game-tying touchdown pass on fourth down late in the game.

Jake Stockman and Tedroy Lynch each had five tackles and one tackle for loss to lead UB's defense.

Along with Taylor, Devin Campbell also was strong outing at running back for the Bulls. The junior from Youngstown, OH had 61 yards on only nine carries for a 6.8 yards-per-carry average.

Taylor's 222-yard effort was the seventh best single-game effort in school history and fifth best in the FBS era.

BOWLING GREEN 36, BUFFALO 35

OCT. 4, 2014 • DOYT PERRY STADIUM • BOWLING GREEN, OH

Bowling Green scored the go-ahead touchdown with 2:19 left in the game to hand the University at Buffalo football team a heartbreaking, 36-35, loss at Doyt Perry Stadium on Saturday.

Junior running back Anthone Taylor had another huge game, finishing with 219 yards rushing and three touchdowns. He became the first player in school history with consecutive 200-yard rushing performances. Taylor ran for 222 yards and three touchdowns against Miami (OH) last week.

The Bulls (3-3, 1-1 MAC) got off to a great start as they took the opening kickoff 75 yards on 15 plays, capped by a quarterback sneak by Joe Licata. The drive took over nine minutes off the clock. Bowling Green (4-2, 2-0 MAC) answered with a 75-yard drive of its own to tie the game at 7. A Bowling Green field goal gave the Falcons a 10-7 lead with 13:56 left in the second quarter.

The Bulls took the lead when Licata found Willoughby for a 16-yard touchdown, capping a five-play, 70-yard drive and giving the Bulls a 14-10 lead. The Falcons answered on their next possession with a 1-yard touchdown to retake the lead, 17-14, with 8:52 left in the half.

Taylor scored on an eight-yard touchdown run to put the Bulls back ahead on their next drive. UB capitalized on a Brandon Crawford sack and forced fumble when Taylor hit paydirt again, this time from one-yard out, to give the Bulls a 28-17 lead late in the half. Bowling Green capped the first-half scoring with a field goal to cut the UB lead to 28-20 at the half.

The Falcons scored on their first possession of the season half to cut the lead to 28-27 and then added a field goal on their next possession to take a 30- 28 lead with 8:07 left in the third quarter.

Dalton Barksdale blocked a Bowling Green field goal attempt and the Bulls capitalized by driving 69 yards and taking a 35-30 lead on a Taylor 12-yard touchdown run.

After the UB defense stepped up and forced a Bowling Green punt, the Bulls marched down the field in hopes of the sealing the victory. UB was able to drive the ball down to the Bowling Green 16-yard line with a little over three minutes left. However Patrick Clarke's 33-yard field goal was pulled wide right, giving life to the Falcons.

It took Bowling Green just four plays to go 80 yards and score the go-ahead touchdown on a four-yard touchdown run.

Devin Campbell was able to return the ensuing kickoff to the Bowling Green 48-yard line with 2:11 on the clock. However, the Bulls went four-and-out and lost by one point.

Licata finished the game 16-of-24 for 134 yards and a touchdown in blustery, cool conditions. Willoughby had four catches for 34 yards and Marcus McGill had three grabs for 41 yards to lead the receivers.

Lee Skinner had a season-high 11 tackles to lead the UB defense. Adam Redden and Witney Sherry each added eight stops. Boise Ross posted the Bulls' first interception of the season to go along with five tackles. The UB defense forced three turnovers on the afternoon.

EASTERN MICHIGAN 37, BUFFALO 27

OCT. 11, 2014 • RYNEARSON STADIUM • YPSILANTI, MI

The State University of New York, Buffalo football team dropped a road contest at Eastern Michigan, 37-27, on the grey turf of Rynearson Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

The Bulls (3-4, 1-2 MAC) rolled up 537 yards of total offense on the afternoon, but struggled in the redzone and that was the difference in the game. UB couldn't capitalize on six trips inside EMU's 20-yard line, scoring only one late touchdown and making two field goals.

Joe Licata threw for 383 yards and three touchdowns, but did have a pair of interceptions. Anthone Taylor rushed for 128 yards on 24 carries. Ron Willoughby had his second career 100-yard receiving game with 103 yards on only four catches.

The Bulls jumped out to a 10-0 lead early on. Licata connected with Marcus McGill on a quick screen that the junior was able to turn into a 24-yard touchdown, giving UB a 7-0 lead with 2:53 left in the first quarter. Patrick Clarke made a 24-yard field goal with 9:24 left in the second quarter to give the Bulls a 10-point edge.

Eastern Michigan (2-4, 1-1 MAC) made a quarterback change late in the half that seemed to spark the Eagles. The Eagles made a field goal in the final minute to cut the UB lead to 10-3 at the break.

On the second play from scrimmage in the second half, EMU quarterback Reginald Bell scampered 71 yards for a touchdown to cut the lead to 10-9. The Bulls went up 12-9 when Clarke connected on a 40-yard field goal on UB's first possession of the second half,

Eastern Michigan took the lead for good with three minutes left in the third quarter on a one-yard touchdown run.

The Bulls had their chances, EMU blocked a 39-yard field goal attempt that would have tied the game early in the fourth quarter. The Eagles were able to score four plays later to go ahead, 23-13. UB fumbled away the ensuing kickoff and, two plays later, EMU was in the endzone again for a 30-13 lead.

Licata hit Matt Weiser for a 50-yard touchdown to cut the lead to 30-20 with 4:52 left. The Bulls were able to get the onside kick, but couldn't capitalize. Bell struck again for a 72-yard touchdown run to ice the game for the Eagles.

Licata threw a four-yard touchdown pass to Devon Hughes with 44 seconds left for his third touchdown pass of the game. Hughes had a game-high seven catches for 58 yards.

Lee Skinner led the UB defense with 10 tackles and a fumble recovery. The senior linebacker became just the 10th player in school history to total 300 career tackles. Okezie Alozie had a career-high nine tackles for the Bulls.

CENTRAL MICHIGAN 20, BUFFALO 14

OCT. 25, 2014 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

The State University of New York, Buffalo football team dropped a hard-fought, 20-14, decision to Central Michigan at UB Stadium late Saturday afternoon. The UB defense stepped up with its best performance in Mid-American Conference play, but it was the stout defensive play of the Chippewas that was the difference on this day.

Central Michigan came into UB Stadium boasting the top defense in the league. The Chippewas held the Bulls to just 38 yards rushing and Anthone Taylor, ranked 10th in the nation in rushing heading into the game, was limited to a season-low 25 yards.

"Obviously it didn't turn out the way we wanted it to," interim head coach Alex Wood said after the game. "I thought our kids played hard tonight. They played with energy. They played with excitement. Unfortunately, they rendered us to be one dimensional offensively and when that happens, it's tough to win. We've got to fix that, obviously, and we will and get ready for our next ball game. We still have a great deal to play for."

Central Michigan jumped out to a 14-0 lead and seemed in control of the game. The Chippewas were driving deep into UB territory late in the first half looking to add to its lead, when senior safety Adam Redden came up with a play that changed the feel of the game. Redden came up with a strip sack of the Central Michigan quarterback and recovered the fumble himself. The Bulls capitalized by marching 67 yards and Joe Licata found Ron Willoughby on a 28-yard touchdown pass to cut the CMU lead to 14-7 at the half.

Devin Campbell wasted little time capitalizing on the UB momentum as he returned the opening kickoff of the second half all the way to the Central Michigan 23-yard line. Three plays later, Licata hit Malcolm Robinson for a six-yard touchdown to tie the game at 14.

There would be no further scoring until Central Michigan mounted an impressive 98-yard touchdown drive that took nine and half minutes off the clock. The seven-yard touchdown pass gave the Chips the lead for good, 20-14, with 8:08 remaining in the game.

The Bulls had two different opportunities to score the go-ahead touchdown, but the Central Michigan defense thwarted both drives.

It was a disappointing result for a defense that played very well for UB. Lee Skinner had a career-high 16 tackles, including 2.5 for loss. Adam Redden had 10 tackles, 3.5 for loss and two of the Bulls' season-high five sacks on the day. Witney Sherry had a career-high 15 tackles and an interception for the Bulls.

Offensively, Licata threw for 233 yards and two touchdowns. The junior signal-caller moved past Joe Freedy (1998-01) for fourth in school history in career passing yardage with 5,994 yards.

OHIO 37, BUFFALO 14

NOV. 4, 2014 • PEDEN STADIUM • ATHENS, OH

The State University of New York, Buffalo football team lost to Ohio, 37-14, at Peden Stadium on a rainy Wednesday night. Miscues cost the Bulls as they turned the ball over four times and botched the snap of a punt that led to 21 of the Bobcats' points.

The Bulls (3-6, 1-4 MAC) seemed out of sync all night. UB could only muster 134 yards of total offense, including just 28 on the ground. Quarterback Joe Licata was held to just 74 yards passing. He did throw an 11-yard touchdown pass to Ron Willoughby for UB's first score and in doing so tied the school record for career touchdown passes with 52.

The UB defense played well despite dealing with sudden turnovers deep in its own territory. Lee Skinner had a game-high 13 tackles and passed former All-American Khalil Mack for seventh in school history with 329 career tackles.

Okezie Alozie had six tackles, including two for loss. He had a sack and forced a fumble that set up the Bulls' first touchdown. The defense scored UB's second touchdown when Brandon Berry forced a fumble that was scooped up by Boise Ross who then raced 75 yards for a touchdown.

Also in the game, Devin Campbell moved in third in school history in career kick return yardage with 1,445, passing Naaman Roosevelt.

BUFFALO 55, AKRON 24

NOV. 11, 2014 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

The State University of New York, Buffalo football team took a months-worth of frustration out on Akron, beating the Zips, 55-24, at UB Stadium on Tuesday night. The 55 points were the most scored by a UB team against a MAC opponent since joining the conference in 1999.

The Bulls (4-6, 2-4 MAC) rolled up 536 yards of total offense against the MAC's top scoring defense – the most allowed by Akron this season. The UB defense was equally as strong, holding the Zips to a season-low 229 yards of total offense.

Joe Licata rebounded nicely from a tough outing last week to pass for 193 yards and four touchdowns. The junior signal-caller now has 56 career touchdown passes, breaking UB Hall-of-Famer Drew Willy's previous school record of 52.

It was also a big night for Anthone Taylor. The junior running back ran for 178 yards on 32 carries and scored a touchdown. He went over 1,000 yards for the season, joining former UB greats Branden Oliver and James Starks as just the third UB running back to eclipse the 1,000-yard plateau in a single season.

The game got off to an inauspicious start for the Bulls as the Zips recorded a pick six on the second play of the game to take a 7-0 lead. UB fumbled the ball away on its next possession as well.

However, the Bulls bounced back, and with 4:59 left in the first quarter, Jordan Johnson pulled off a terrific fake to find Matt Weiser for a 33-yard touchdown and tie the game at seven. On the Bulls' next possession, UB grabbed the lead for good when Licata found Devin Campbell on a 6-yard slant for a touchdown.

For the first time this season, the Bulls utilized a two-quarterback system and it seemed to confuse the Zips. Tony Daniel, a gifted running quarterback, scored the Bulls third touchdown of the night when he scampered to the endzone from 21 yards out to give the Bulls a 21-7 lead.

After Akron kicked a field goal to cut the lead to 21-10, the Bulls mounted an impressive 60-yard drive in the closing stages of the half and Licata hooked up with Jacob Martinez on a 17-yard touchdown to give the Bulls a 27-10 lead with just 15 seconds left in the half.

Akron scored on its opening drive of the second half to make the score 27-14. But the Bulls quickly silenced any Akron threat when Licata found Ron Willoughby for a 42-yard touchdown on UB's ensuing possession to regain a 17-point advantage.

On the very first play of Akron's next drive, Tedroy Lynch forced a fumble that was recovered by Branden Crawford. The Bulls capitalized just one play later when Licata found a wide-open Campbell for a 24-yard touchdown pass to put the Bulls ahead, 41-17, with 6:20 left in the third quarter.

The Bulls capped the night's scoring with a pair of rushing touchdowns in the fourth quarter. The first was a 6-yard run by Taylor and the final score was a 16-yard run by Johnson.

Johnson had the best game of his career on Tuesday night. The sophomore running back ran for a career-high 104 yards in the game. As a team, the Bulls rushed for a season-high 310 yards in the game.

UB's defense was led by Adam Redden who had nine tackles, a sack, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. Jarrett Franklin had six tackles, including a career-best three for loss.

BUFFALO 41, MASSACHUSETTS 21

NOV. 28, 2014 • McGUIRK STADIUM • AMHERST, MA

The State University of New York, Buffalo football team ended the season in style with a dominant, 41-21, win over Massachusetts at McGuirk Stadium on Friday afternoon. The Bulls rolled up 548 yards of total offense, paced by Anthone Taylor's career-high 237 yards rushing and two touchdowns.

"It's a special win. I can't describe it. It means so much to me," interim head coach Alex Wood said. "It was fun to see our seniors go out as winners."

For the second straight week, the UB offense was nearly unstoppable. Coming off a 55-point performance against Akron, the 96 points in the last two games tied for fourth all-time in school history for back-to-back games and the most since 1959.

Quarterback Joe Licata was 20-of-27 for 255 yards and four touchdowns. He finished the season with 29 touchdown passes, a school record for a single season.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Bulls mounted an impressive 17-play, 99-yard drive that took over eight minutes off the clock. A fully-extended Devon Hughes laid out for a 28-yard touchdown pass from Licata for the game's first score. Licata found Jacob Martinez for a 31-yard touchdown late in the second quarter to give the Bulls a 13-0 lead at the half.

UB took its first possession of the second half and drove 71 yards on only six plays. Licata found Ron Willoughby over the middle from 22 yards out to give the Bulls a 20-0 lead with 10:30 left in the third quarter.

UMass scored its first touchdown of the game on its next possession to cut the lead to 20-7. However, Devin Campbell returned the ensuing kickoff 56 yards to the UMass 39 and, seven plays later, Hughes caught his second touchdown pass of the game (four yards) from Licata and the Bulls took a 27-7 lead.

Taylor scored on a three-yard run with 1:54 left in the third quarter to put the Bulls ahead, 34-7, and then put the exclamation point on the victory with a career-long 76-yard touchdown run with 3:19 left in the game.

It was Taylor's third 200-yard game of the season and the junior running back finished the season with 1,403 yards – the second-best single-season total in school history. He became the first running back in school history to have three 200-yard rushing games in a single season.

Lee Skinner had 10 tackles and two sacks in the final game of his career. He finished his standout career sixth in school history with 344 career tackles. Fellow seniors Adam Redden and Jake Stockman each finished with eight tackles.

The Bulls had eight pass breakups in the game. Cortney Lester had two in the game and finished his career one shy of the school record for career passes defended (38).

The Bulls finished the 2014 campaign with an overall record of 5-6 and a 3-4 conference mark.

History of UB Football

The year was 1894. Fourteen University at Buffalo medical students got together, bought uniforms and practiced after classes, splitting time at Brown's Riding Academy on East North Street and John's Riding Academy on East Utica. After honing their skills carefully, avoiding remnants of horses that grazed their practice pastures, they put on their blue jerseys, tight pants, and leather boots and stepped onto a baseball field on East Ferry Street to face Hobart College. As they kicked off to the visitors, no one among those first UB football players could have foreseen the journey they were embarking upon. They were not merely kicking a football, they were kicking off UB's quest for intercollegiate competition.

UB's football program began modestly when the University, then a private institution consisting of schools of dentistry, law, medicine and pharmacy, formed an athletic association. The athletic association in turn started the first football program. That first team was led by captain A. B. Stein who was joined by founding members J.B. Crofts, Irving Johnson, William Potter, Gray McCuthcheon, St. John Green and "Dinky" Johnson. During the first three years of its existence, the football team played squads from the University of Rochester and Hobart College and experienced little success, compiling a record of 0-2-4. Most importantly however, the team gained recognition from UB during this period when the University granted the team usage of an on-campus field for its home games.

UB football savored its first taste of success in 1897 when the team compiled a 7-0 record under manager E.J. Meyer and coach C.W. Dibble. Crowds began to flock to UB's home games, and in response the university moved many of the team's more popular contests to Civic Stadium in 1900.

The UB football bandwagon really gained momentum when the team played in an exhibition match at the 1901 Pan-American Exposition. UB played in front of a Chinese representative who "... did not understand much about the game, was delighted to see the sport." This high point was short-lived however, as UB was dealt a crushing 128-0 defeat by national powerhouse University of Michigan in what remains the worst defeat ever suffered by a UB squad. That loss seemingly was symbolic of the hard times to come as poor support and organization for the following two seasons forced UB's athletic association to cease football operations after the 1903 season.

Frank M. Pleasant awoke the hibernating UB football program in 1915 when he revitalized the program as the team's first full-time, professional head coach. UB adopted the Bison as its mascot that year and proceeded to a 3-3 record.

Art Powell took over the reins of the program in 1916, helping UB to improve with each season. UB football hit a peak in 1918 when the squad compiled a 3-1 record. The Bisons also enjoyed their most lopsided victory to date during the '18 campaign, an 81-0 defeat of Hobart.

The 1923 season brought many changes to UB's football program. James Batterson took over as head coach and the Bisons played their first game at Rotary Field, dedicated by the Rotary Club of Buffalo. Dr. James Ailinger, a standout basketball player for UB and a member of the 1922 football team, recalled UB's humble facilities on opening day at Rotary Field.

"The first season we played here we had to dress up in Hayes Hall and run to the field," said Ailinger. "In between there was a farm, so we had to run through potato and vegetable fields to reach the stadium. Only the end zone was marked. There were stones everywhere and the end zone on the side near the present medical school was six feet higher than the other side. Winning the toss was important because we could choose to play uphill or downhill."

UB struggled the first season in its new home, compiling a 1-5 record.

The six seasons that followed under head coaches James Bond (1923) and Russell Carrick (1924-28) were rather bleak as well. The Bisons did not have a winningseason over that period, tallying a record of 7-36-3. By 1929 it was quite evident that UB's football program desperately needed resuscitation once again. The man to jump start UB was head coach Jay "Biffy" Lee, former roommate at Notre Dame of legendary coach Knute Rockne. Some of Rockne's majestical motivation must have rubbed off as Lee led UB to a 5-2 record in what would be the Bisons only winning campaign in 16 seasons. Lee upgraded UB's schedule during the following two seasons and the Bisons' record suffered once again as they fell to squads from Fordham, Carnegie Tech, Dartmouth and the Notre Dame B team.

In 1931, the team changed its mascot to the Bull in order to distinguish UB from the professional teams in the Queen City.

Jim Peelle was hired as the 12th head coach in Bulls' history in 1936 with the burden of ending six consecutive losing campaigns. Peelle rejuvenated the program by notching five victories against three losses in his inaugural season. That success was short-lived however, as UB failed to post another winning season until 1942 when Peelle's squad went 6-2 once again with impressive victories over Hobart, St. Lawrence and Johns Hopkins.

UB heeded the call of its nation after the 1942 season by suspending all intercollegiate athletics due to the country's involvement in World War II. The Bulls returned to the field in 1946 and staged their second consecutive winning season for the first time since 1899. Civic Stadium became the home site for all UB home games in 1946, a relationship which lasted until 1954.

Frank Clair was handpicked by Peelle to be his replacement in 1948. Clair extended UB's consecutive winning seasons mark to five during his two-year stint. The highlight of Clair's tenure was a 48-13 victory over the heavily-favored Louisville Cardinals.

The Canadian Football League lured Clair away in 1950 and UB Athletic Director Jim Peelle brought back a familiar face to lead the Bulls, former head coach James Wilson. Despite severe cutbacks in the football program's budget and mediocre seasons, the Bulls drew 26,126 fans to Civic Stadium, setting a single-game attendance record, in a 47-13 loss to Colgate.

In 1955, Clifford C. Furnas was named Chancellor of the University and instituted a five-year plan aimed at upgrading UB's athletic programs. Richard "Dick" Offenhamer was tabbed to lead the Bulls back to respectability and did so by posting a 4-4-1 record in his initial season. Fran Woidzik, a standout on the 1955 squad, went on to become the first Bull to be taken in the National Football League draft. Offenhamer's first season was a prelude of good things to come for the Bulls, as he would end his career with UB's best career winning percentage.

The year 1958 will forever be remembered as one of the greatest seasons in UB football history. On the strength of an 8-1 record that included victories over

Harvard and Columbia, UB claimed the prestigious Lambert Cup, emblematic of Eastern small college supremacy. Team captains Nick Bottini and Lou Reale accepted the award on the Ed Sullivan Show on December 14 of that year before a national audience. The Bulls also earned an invitation to the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Florida but declined the offer to protest the discriminatory policies of the bowl's stadium, which refused to allow black athletes to compete on its field.

After posting an 8-1 record and finishing second in the Lambert Cup competition to Delaware in 1959, UB moved up to University Division status in 1960.

UB football made great strides in the early 1960s with stars like quarterback John "Long John" Stofa and defensive tackle Gerry Philbin. Stofa rewrote UB's passing records during his career while Philbin was named to the All-East team and played in the North-South and Coaches All-American post-season games. Both Stofa and Philbin would go on to play in the NFL following their UB careers.

UB reached another pinnacle in 1962, being recognized as "major" by the NCAA. UB also received attention in 1964 when its contest at Boston University was televised to a national audience.

Doc Urich handled UB's coaching duties for the 1966-68 seasons after Offenhamer stepped down. Urich guided UB to its finest season at the "major" level with a 7-3 record, losing only to Iowa State, Boston College and Villanova.

Bob Deming took over as head coach for the 1969 and '70 seasons and led the Bulls to wins over Boston College and Villanova in 1969. In 1970, ABC-TV regionally televised a 16-0 UB victory over Holy Cross at Rotary Field in the only game in UB history to be broadcast from Buffalo by a major network.

The black day in UB football history came in January of 1971 when due to expenses and the political climate on campus, football was dropped as a varsity sport.

In the fall of 1977, with the support of students, alumni and administration, UB restarted its football program with head coach Bill Dando at the reins. UB played four games in that first season, playing RIT to a 7-7 tie in its very first game back, the last tie in UB school history.

The Bulls built back to respectability quickly and did not have a losing season from 1980-1984, posting a 30-21 record.

In 1985, UB moved to the greener pastures of the Amherst Campus and the 4,000-seat UB Stadium. The Bulls defeated Villanova, 29-27, in Philadelphia in 1986 and once again talk of a possible upgrade of UB's program was alive.

New University President Steven Sample appealed to the Intercollegiate Athletics Board (IAB) in 1985 to upgrade UB to Division I-AA status. The IAB granted that request and after approval by the SUNY system in February of 1986, the "Run to Division I" had begun.

Former UB great Sam Sanders was hired in 1990 to replace Bill Dando and lead the Bulls from Division III and into the spotlight of Division I. After two rebuilding years under Sanders, the program took a hard hit when the head coach was forced to step down for medical reasons. Jim Ward, UB's offensive coordinator under Sanders, became the 20th head coach of the University at Buffalo's football program in 1992.

Under the direction of Athletic Director Nelson E. Townsend with the strong support of University President William R. Greiner, UB completed its "Run to Division I" on September 4, 1993, playing its first game at the Division I level in more than 20 years against the University of Maine. UB unveiled its $22 million, 16,500-seat UB Stadium on the Amherst Campus, site of the 1993 World University Games. In front of 14,179 fans, the Bulls put on quite a show, taking the lead with 51 seconds remaining in the contest. Maine spoiled UB's return, however, scoring a last-second touchdown to earn a 31-27 win.

In January of 1995, the Bulls came full circle when they hired UB alum Craig Cirbus ('80), who had spent the previous 11 years as an assistant under legendary coach Joe Paterno at Penn State.

A few months later, the Bulls wowed Western New York when they announced that they would be heading to Division I-A and the Mid-American Conference in 1999.

The 1996 season will go down as one of the finest in school history. The Bulls finished 8-3 on the season, earning the first Top 25 ranking in school history and earning Cirbus I-AA Independent National Coach of the Year honors. In addition, three Bulls (Ed Ellis, Craig Guest and Gerald Carlson) signed NFL contracts with Ellis being picked in the 4th round by the New England Patriots.

In 1999, UB rejoined the ranks of major college football with its entrance into the Mid-American Conference. The Bulls were back in the big-time for the first time in nearly 30 years.

The Bulls earned their first Division I-A victory in 30 years on September 23, 2000 when they nipped Bowling Green, 20-17, at UB Stadium. Buffalo would go on to defeat Kent State and finish 2-4 in the MAC East in 2000.

On November 30, 2000 Athletic Director Bob Arkeilpane announced the hiring of Jim Hofher as the 22nd head football coach in UB history. Hofher brought with him to Buffalo 22 years of Division I coaching experience, including stints as an assistant at Tennessee, Syracuse and North Carolina and eight years as head coach at Cornell University.

On December 16, 2005 Athletic Director Warde Manuel announced that Turner Gill, who was part of three national championships as a coach at the University of Nebraska and a Heisman Trophy finalist as a player, agreed to a five-year contract to become the 23rd head football coach at the University at Buffalo. In his first season with the Bulls, UB scored 220 points, the most by a Buffalo team since moving to I-A.

Buffalo had its most successful season since returning to the Division I-A ranks in 2007. The Bulls finished the year 5-7 overall and 5-3 in the Mid-American Conference for a share of the East Division regular season title. Turner Gill was named MAC Coach of the Year and a UB record eight players were named to the All-Conference Team. Junior quarterback Drew Willy completed a school-record 258 passes and had the highest pass efficiency rating in school history and sophomore running back James Starks became the Bulls' first 1,000-yard rusher in the I-A era with 1,103 yards.

On December 5, 2008 the Bulls defeated 12th-ranked and undefeated Ball State to win the MAC Championship for the first time in school history.

The Bulls had an 8-6 record in 2008. The eight wins were the most in the Bulls' Division I-A era and one shy of the school record for wins in a season.

The 2008 season featured one of the most explosive offenses in school history. Gill, who handled the play calling, commanded an offense that scored a school-record 424 points. Quarterback Drew Willy threw for a school-record 3,304 yards and 25 touchdowns, running back James Starks ran for a school-record 1,333 yards and 16 touchdowns and wideout Naaman Roosevelt established school records of 104 receptions, 1,402 yards and 13 touchdowns.

The Bulls played in their first ever bowl game when they faced off against Connecticut in the 2009 International Bowl.

The Bulls finished 2009 season 5-7 and featured an offense that averaged 405 yards per game - the highest average in UB's Division I-A era. Numerous Bulls wrapped up record-breaking careers. Although he missed the entire season with a shoulder injury, Starks finished his career as the school record holder for rushing (3,140 yards) and rushing touchdowns (34). He was selected by the Green Bay Packers in the sixth round of the NFL Draft. Naaman Roosevelt set the school record for receptions (268) and receiving yards (3,551) and signed with the Buffalo Bills.

Jeff Quinn was hired as Buffalo's 24th head coach on December 22, 2010. Quinn has produced record-breaking offenses throughout his 27-year college coaching tenure and has won conference and national championships at his last three stops, including five conference crowns in the past eight seasons. He most recently spent three seasons as the offensive coordinator at Cincinnati.

In 2010, Davonte Shannon broke the school record for career tackles with 461 enroute to being named to the All-MAC First Team for the fourth straight year. He became just the fourth player in the history of the Mid-American Conference to earn that distinction. Cornerback Josh Thomas was selected in the fifth round (143rd pick) of the NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

in 2011, Branden Oliver rushed for a school-record 1,395 yards and added 13 touchdowns en route to earning first-team All-MAC honors. Chazz Anderson transfered from Cincinnati to play his final season at Buffalo. The UB signal caller threw for 2,454 yards and 11 touchdowns on the year. He set a single-game school record with 35 completions against Northern Illinois (10/22). Khalil Mack ranked third in the nation in tackles for loss with 20.5.

The Bulls had a strong finish to the 2012 campaign by winning three of the final four games. Using a plethora of running backs, the Bulls rushed for 2,120 yards - the third highest total in school history. Khalil Mack was named All-MAC First Team for the second straight year in a season in which he set the school record for career tackles for loss (56) and forced fumbles (11).

UB had one of its finest seasons as a Division I-A program in 2013. The Bulls went 8-5, including a 6-2 record in the MAC. It was their most MAC wins since joining the conference in 1999. UB advanced to the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl for just its second ever bowl appearance in school history.

Branden Oliver finished his career as the Bulls all-time leading rusher with 4,409 yards. Alex Neutz broke the school record for career touchdown receptions with 31. And then there was Khalil Mack. The All-American linebacker broke the NCAA record for career forced fumbles with 16 and tied the NCAA mark for career takles for loss with 75. He went on to become the Bulls' highest drafted player in school history as he was picked fifth overall by the Oakland Raiders in the 2014 NFL Draft.

Anthone Taylor rushed for 1,403 yards in 2014 - the second-highest single-season effort in school history. Lance Leipold was named the 25th UB football head coach on Dec. 1, 2014. Kristjan Sokoli was selected in the sixth round of the 2015 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks.

A DIFFERENT TIME IN A DIFFERENT WORLD

Looking back at one of the most influential football teams in University history 50 years later

By Alex Rubin and Stephen Marth

"Picture Buffalo as it is today…and then forget about all of the suburbs - they weren't there. The nightlife downtown, you had a big nightclub called the Town Casino, you had all of these theaters downtown, it was just so different than what exists today that you can't even imagine."

Stanley Kowalski, left guard for the 1958 Bulls football team, said the above reminiscing about his memories of the city of Buffalo. While this image of Buffalo remains dear to him, another issue clouds his memories – the scandal of the 1958 Tangerine Bowl.

The 1958 football season at the University at Buffalo was one of extreme highs and even more extreme lows; marked by an appearance on the Ed Sullivan show after an 8-1 season, sullied by racism and segregation.

After finishing the season as the Lambert Cup champions, Buffalo was invited to play in the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, FL. However, after accepting the invitation, University Chancellor Clifford Furnas, along with the entire team, made the decision to not play in the game; they learned that their two black players, Willie Evans and Mike Wilson, would not be allowed to play as per the request of the hosting school district.

In a statement made about his decision, Furnas said, "They are two of our finest young men, and have greatly contributed to our fine showing this season. The possibility of discrimination against any member of the team prevents our appearance at the game."

Being a member of the football team made Evans, the star running back for the team, a hot commodity around campus. The fact that he was one of very few minorities on campus made it tough for him at times.

"It was subtle. I didn't have the luxury of cutting class, because having made a little name for myself in athletics, professors knew who I was. Not to mention, I was usually the only black person in the class," Evans said.

One reason Kowalski believes there was not blatant racism within the team was that several players grew up without having relationships with minorities. Since there was no history of racism in their background, Kowalski believes it allowed the players to come in with open minds towards both Wilson and Evans.

"I grew up in a small mill town in Pennsylvania… we didn't have any blacks living there, so you didn't have prejudice built up ingrained in your head by your parents or your uncles," Kowalski said.

In the first game of the season, the Bulls were to face Harvard, one of the most respected teams in the nation at the time. Evans remembers this win being the first sign that the team could do something special.

"If you went back the year before, we were 5-4. I can remember vividly our coach saying before our last game versus Temple, he wanted us to win our last game so we could go in to the next season with a win, when we played Harvard," Evans said. "[Beating Harvard] got us off to a good start – it was a different feeling. We had no notion of winning the Lambert Cup, we didn't even know about it. We just wanted to win football games."

According to Kowalski, the Bulls were in a unique position due to the fact that they were the only team in or near Buffalo. This gathered media attention.

"Most of the teams that played football after the Second World War had already dropped it," Kowalski said. "We were the only game in town and the papers started to give us all kinds of press, which was kind of unique."

"It was a big deal for Buffalo at the time," Evans concurred. "Blacks weren't included in the paper at all for any reason, yet we were on the front page. When we were coming back from Harvard, the pilot told us that there were a couple thousand students waiting for us at the airport. It was great support."

It was not a coincidence that the Bulls were peaking in 1958; the senior class was the first class to play all four years on scholarship, meaning the team was as cohesive as ever and also had as much talent as possible. While Kowalski understands that football has changed immensely in the past 50 years, he is proud of the accomplishments the team made, and how they stuck together in the face of adversity that followed the end of the regular season.

"We stand very high, simply because of the celebrity that was given to us, that opportunity that we had to make a mark…we were the first team to go into the UB Hall of Fame," Kowalski said. "Obviously the whole game of football has changed so dramatically…we couldn't compare to the teams that are put on the field today, but at that time, we were a very respectable team."

In the final game of the regular season, the Bulls defeated Bucknell 38-0 to earn their first Lambert Cup. This game was especially important for Kowalski, who played in front of friends, family and his old high school football coach. Kowalski did not disappoint, returning an interception for a touchdown en route to Buffalo's victory.

After the victory, Buffalo's co-captains Nicholas Bottini and Louis Reale appeared on the Ed Sullivan show to accept the Lambert Cup, a trophy for the top team of the "Eastern Small Colleges."

"They are two of our finest young men, and have greatly contributed to our fine showing this season. The possibility of discrimination against any member of the team prevents our appearance at the game."

Willie Evans averaged 7.6 yards per carry for 530 yards in 1958

Along with the victory came an invite to the Tangerine Bowl. When news broke about the Bulls being invited to their first bowl game, the team was skeptical, as it would have meant missing a week of classes and work. Several players on the team were married and needed to continue to work to support their family. After much debate however, the team decided to accept the invite.

The decision was quickly changed when Buffalo was informed that if the team was to play, they would have to do so without Evans or Wilson, who were both black.

"Our initial feelings were good. We never even thought about playing in a bowl game. The issue of race didn't even come up in the beginning," Evans said. "The only thing I recall is the first meeting we had where we decided we wanted to go as a team. I found out (about the racism issue) as I walked out of the house after Thanksgiving, and a neighbor said to me 'I guess they don't want you black boys down there…' I got the newspaper and there was my picture on the front page of the Courier Express with Mike Wilson, outlining the position Chancellor Furnas took on the issue, where if myself and Mike couldn't play, UB would not take part in the contest."

The field that had been rented for the game belonged to an Orlando school district that had a strict rule that blacks and whites could not play on the field at the same time, the team discovered. In response, the Bulls held a second meeting where they decided not to play in the game if Evans and Wilson would not be allowed to play. While the Elks Club, the sponsor of the game, offered to find another field, Chancellor Furnas was the man charged with making the ultimate decision.

"Chancellor Furnas was a prominent individual… his credentials were impeccable," Kowalski said. "He was a physicist. He was an Olympic sprinter. He was the assistant secretary of defense for research and development in the Eisenhower administration… there wasn't anybody capable of criticizing him. The way he put it was he would not demean any of his players, or even present an opportunity for anyone to be uncomfortable in the Florida setting."

As the image of Buffalo's first bowl came and went, Evans carried the experience of racism with him after college. It followed him to the professional level, as he entered the American Football League. Evans had never visited any of the southern states.

"I had a chip on my shoulder from the experience. It was a matter of letting it beat you down or not. I saw it as an opportunity to show my athleticism. I eventually was drafted by the Buffalo Bills, which was also an experience. It was my first time playing with white ball players from the South. There were players I never spoke to, and they never spoke to me, yet we were 'teammates.' That hardened my attitude about the idea of racism. Our coach was from the South, and I didn't appreciate being called 'boy.' He called everybody 'boy.' I ended up getting released right before the season began, but I wasn't too upset about it."

Since his playing days, Evans has remained active in the University community, holding several positions on the Alumni board and serving on the committees that brought both Athletic Director Warde Manuel and President Simpson to Buffalo.

"One reason why I'm still with the university is the way things have come," Evans said. "Diversity is something that has caught on with the campus. We're not there yet, but it has improved significantly since I was here. There are expectations that exist now that were not around when I was a student."

Discrimination Is Issue

UB Turns Down Bid To Tangerine Bowl

By RAY RYAN

The University of Buffalo, unswervingly loyal to two of its players, last night turned down an invitation to play its first bowl football game—the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Fla., on Dec. 27.

The issue was discrimination. Two of Buffalo's players are Negroes. Willie Evans, a left halfback, led the Bulls in rushing yardage during their highly successful 8-1 season. Mike Wilson is a reserve end.

The fault did not lie with the Tangerine Bowl committee or its chairman, Jack Morgan, or the Orlando Elks Club, which promotes the game for the benefit of crippled children.

The committee tendered the bid on Monday, Nov. 24, with the full knowledge that Buffalo has two Negro players. Subsequently, the committee approached the Orlando High School Athletic Assn., which controls the stadium which is the site of the game, with a request it be allowed to rent the stadium.

At the same time, the committee requested that the Athletic Assn. waive a clause in the standard contract which stipulates there be no intermingling of the races in athletic contests in the stadium. This request was refused.

The Tangerine Bowl committee voted—104 to 4—in favor of Buffalo coming to Orlando, even in view of this development. These men wanted to see Buffalo play football.

But the only other possible playing site in Orlando is a practice field around which 3,000 or 4,000 bleacher seats could be installed.

Morgan said that, if Buffalo desired to make the trip, the Elks would guarantee there would be no discrimination. Although the Elks undoubtedly would take a tremendous financial loss (the Tangerine Bowl seats 13,500), they stood ready to live up to every financial term contained in the bid to the Buffalo athletic director, Jim Peelle, last Monday.

Dr. Clifford C. Furnas, chancellor of the University of Buffalo, was informed of the Orlando High School Athletic
